CATCHING RASCALS.

In fishing for "rascals" the administration is surprising itself and scandalizing its party by dragging democrate out of the poo... A dis-patch published reserving said "After all the appear about unearthing republican corruption the very first investigation instituted by the new administration has resulted in pinning to the administration has resulted in pinning to the wall a lot of wayward democratic but erifies of the colast survey. That institution has long been officered by democrats. Not one of the officials said to be implicated is a republican, unitess it may be the disbursing clerl, and he simply did as he was ordered."

Of course it will be said that it makes no difference whether the reargels are democrated.

oreuce whether the rascals are democrats or republicans, since, in either case, they ought to be exposed. This is very true, and yet a demo-cratic administration, in instituting a search for rascale, expected to find republicans only, and democratic organs have been counting on discovery of material that would make a prodigious amount of party capital, and enable them to overwhelm republicans with the exand that everything connected with the stration of the government by the republicans for years past was dishonest, extrava-gant and corrept. This led Hendricks and others to cry last year, "Let us have a look at the books" Not long ago Secretary Mauning expressed surprise at the admirable manner in which the treasury department had been or ganized and managed by his predecessor eaving that he had no idea, till he looked in hat the system was so perfect and so safe leved that the business of the department had been so loosely done as to afford boundless opportunity for peculation and corruption, but had learned better It has, in fact, long been known to all who have done business for the national government, and par niarly with the treasury department, that the Fratem was undergoing improvement from year to year till it became long since as perfect, as it could be There is no comparison what-ever between the safety and the thoroughness of the present methods and of those that prevailed

But the telegram about the reacels of the coast surrey is not quite correct. In fishing for 'ras-cale' the administration pulled to the surface quite a number before these; and, curious enough, they were democrate, too There has been a nighty outery about turning out the people who hold the great cattle leases in the Indian territory. The president had made up his mind to do it, whereupon it was thought proper to acquaint him with the fact that the en chiefly interested in the leases were conspicuous democrats of his own state. But he had taken his stand and could not recode, and for this he is entitled to high praise The New York Tribune brings out this fact, naming A. NOTE TROUBE Orings out this fact, naming A. 8 Hewitt, representaine in congress, and exMayor Cooper, both of New York city, as among the distinguished wealthy democrats interested in the syndicate that holds and operate the leases in the Indian territory. The information, it says, comes from "high democratic authority," and it adds "Now this business has been no, and hades "Now this business has been roundly denounced by democratic journals and democratic politicians as one of the must infamous of all the infamous frauds which had grown up under republican administrations. ### PORTLAND AND OMARA

A correspondent whose letter we print this morning writes in detail of matters which this journal has discussed in a general way. He draws from Omaha many illustrations supporting theories put forth through The Oregonian, and he demonstrates the truth of these had by pointing out the prosperity of Omaha on the one hand and the stagnation of Portland on the other The contrast is striking and the liustra tions by which our correspondent presents it, are a series of object lessons for the instruction of our men of affairs. The energy of Omaha is put forth in productive channels. It cannot be said, mixed, that Omaha is a great manufactur ing city, but it does something toward reduction of every raw product that comes to it. It does or every raw product that comes to it. It does not manufacture gold or silverware nor commoney but it does the prel minary work (r ducing gold and silver from base bull 4 | I, does not make paints of high grades but it works up its fianceed into oil. It turns out not always highly finished manufactures but all class of coarse articles and many materials for finer man ufacture. Each process requires men and upon it there is a special profit besides the general profit which comes through increased popula-tion [Productive enterprises in turn sopport and promote the trade interests of the city with which they are closely connected. habited to the business of supply. It knows not how to do, nor has it the spirit to do anynot now to do, nor mask the spirit to do anything else. If the country prospers and needs goods or money, Portland supplies it. If the country languishes for a market, Portland ettil offers goods and money always, of course, upon proper security. There is no change to upon proper seemity. There is no change to meet changing conditions. Now when the country is ill of plethors, while its granaries and storehouses are full, Portland makes no effort to afford a market. It still offers goods and money upon the old terms. Business is dull, homes are vacant, because there are fewer people here than formerly. Mechanics, labou-ers, and others attracted here by the "booms" have gone away because there is nathing for them to do no way in make a living. This have gone away because there is neithing for 'wholeseme in its results than a prohibitory them to do no way to make a living. This law, which would sea dead is ter and a farce."

talk is plain, but plain talk is meeded, for the THE CONFEDERATE BLOODY SHIRT estuat on is serious. We may well study the methods by which Omalus and other cities have gene neward. Ask our ves at louses will not fill up til. we apply it em.

THE SCHOOLS AGAIN.

The gry superintendent checis, in the dis-The gr'y superintendent to lects, in the dis-russion of school matters, to 1 style of criticless which he admits "proper and pointie" enough when applied to other public affairs, and this protect in entirely consistent with what appears to be is theory that he school management is no accountable under the rules of common sense and common honesty which apply to "s'reet improvements or it e lredger." We cannot admit, for all his "inst stirg." that Mr. Crawters and his delags have the right to be judget by different standarca than those by which other off cals and other up the effects are which other officials and other public affairs are judget, nor shall we feel maker any duty of tenderer speech in criticising the schools and their superintendent than a criticising the dredger and its master. This crank notion of the responsibility of the serior management and of its immunity from public criticism is in keeping with the lack of juagment which runs ing our school system and one faults in the

There are many parents who ese rants in the present course of study in the public schools, many to whom these faults are a vital matter, who do not feel competent to rush into print. It is their compaints combag at different times and from many sources which The Orngonian volved in its article of last Thursday. When Ars. Sarah Jane Brown finds that her son John. Mrs. Sarah Jane Brown finds that her son John, saged 9 who must leave school next year to driver dump cart and add three dollars a week to be family purse) a spending his time at school in learning that "cognites are letters whose oral elements are protuced by the same organs in a smilar manner," and "pages on pages" of similar information, instead of learning to read, it is about to insist that she must write out her complaint and have it printed are her own name, orthespatilly was more named than that Barne, orthogo still What more na ural than that she should seige a representative of the leading newspaper when he comes to anguire after that missing cuff, and pour her troubles into his car? I would seem very dealers in that the first three school years should be spent in reading. three school years should be specifi in reading, writing and metting figures, and in such mental in operations in numbers as will suggest themsaltes to any good teacher. Then, at the age of nine, a child chold go into the fifth grade well prepared to begin the study of arithmetic and geography. He should be able to write a good pla in hand, read at sight any ord nary English, spe I correctly words in common use, make good figures, and readily perform simple mental

The two years spent in he study of this poorest of grammans is worse han wasted, and the pupil of the Por land public schools, going into the third grade, has to unleare what he has so inhoriously earded it grammar and begin agrin.
We will say again, why not ado it a course of stuny which has been found good in San Fran-cisco and St. Louis rather than one compiled by a committee, though that committee be com-posed of Solons? We will saw Mr. Crawford if he has rever heard any compaint of the present course from parents or teachers. We will also sak him if he has never noticed how unfavorably our children compare with those coming into our primary rooms from other cities, notably San Francisco.

We had not the slightest do at that Mr Craw ford would be able to explain away the objections.

It was because of Mr Crawford's eminent qualifications an explainer that we suggested that the directors look is to these matters then selles. Again we suggest that they do this and we further suggest that they do it unhamp ered by the presence of Mr Crawford or any body else who would come to the fask in the spiri of defense. Let the examination be strictly upon the merits of the case, and let the judg-nien be not upon a standard of Mi Crawford's

The Hoston Advertises (mugwamp) admits that u some of the southern states and notably in M saisuppl, elections for years have been carried by fraud and violence. It says "The democrate have carried the state (Massissippl), using violence to intimidate, and froud o cheet, the repu illeans, when they found it necessary to their ends." "The wrongs cope in Misabsuppi have been in onstreams." And vatite Advertises have been monstrous." And yet the Advertis nave cool mountains. The policy of the magazine, it is said, will be to publish comparalisely few pectures and only those of the best kind. Its alm will be to represent literature with art as an adjunct rather than o represent art p marrily.

The Atlanta (6a.) Constitution says of the liquer legislation of that state. "Under the judicious minging of local option and high license any rude shock to our material interests are aroted it sparsely settled regions, where very few have their cap tail and labor employed in the liquor trafic, probibition works no injury, but much benefit. In a ties the system of high license and rigilant poline surveillance deprives the Liquer exil of its worst features and keeps it with a bounds. To this completion it must come at last." Let us add that it is the only sensible way either for the South or North, besensible way either for the South or North, because it a the only practical way.

WHEAT—Cables report a steady cargoes market although spot is lower. Fine weather in England evidently has some effect. New York Chicago and San Francisco rule irregular. Our own market is niskew brainess although buyers are doing some thing in the interior. Values are without change. The outgoing steamer had 500 tons. OATS—Market firmer under advices from San Francisco, and choice grades might bring an advance on last quotations. Exports light. FRUIT—Liberal supplies are to be noted and values are quiteeasy.
